- Work from home position within the communities of Chilliwack and Fraser Cascades

For more than 20 years, FamilySmart has been working in B.C. to help children and young people by helping their family and other caring adults. We know children and young people do better when the adults who care about them are supported.

Position Summary

Parent Peer Support Workers are parents and caregivers of children or youth with mental health and/or substance use challenges. Your personal parenting experience is the primary requirement for this role. Your experiences will help other families find help, comfort, hope, and feel less alone.

As a Parent Peer Support Worker, you will provide peer support in the communities of Chilliwack and Fraser Cascades to families and caregivers whose children and youth are experiencing difficulty with their mental health and/or with substance use.

The Parent Peer Support Worker provides peer support to families and caregivers by:

- Providing emotional support to families to caregivers
- Sharing information and resources with families and caregivers
- Offering knowledge/education to families and caregivers
- Helping families and caregivers navigate (find their way to) services
- Building on parents and caregivers strengths and offering hope
- Meeting with families and caregivers in-person, by video chat, phone and email

You do not need to be an expert in mental health, your family's experience is enough.

You:

- Are good at building relationships
- Make connections easily
- Demonstrate compassion and care to others
- Are able to work well with Service Providers in the community
- Are comfortable promoting and presenting on FamilySmart's Parent Peer Support services
- Have strong verbal and written skills
